

AHE announces new promotion

MUSCAT Al Hassan Electricals Company (AHE), the flagship company of Al Hassan Group and distributor of lighting and electrical products in Oman, has announced a new promotion across its showrooms in Oman.

It allows customers to avail massive discounts on products and win assured gifts from now till the end of the promotional period by March-end, according to a press release.

During the promotion, customer can walk into any of AHE's showrooms in Oman and benefit from a special discount of up to 70 per cent on a wide product range. Besides, the customer can also walk away with many exciting gifts and a chance to win a trip for two to Malaysia.

"At AHE, we set out to deliver great experiences for our customers and fantastic value for money, through our products and services. This promotion reiterates our commitment and we are certain that it will prove to be very popular," said Abbas Jamal, GM, Trading (Oman).

AHE's showrooms are in Mabela, Honda Road, Al Ghubra, Al Amerat, Al Khoudh, A'Seeb and Buraimi and they stock some of the best international brands. AHE is one of the largest distributors of electrical equipment, lighting products, energy management systems, transmission and distribution equipment and building construction products in Oman.

AHE supplies goods in record turnaround time through a fleet of feeder vehicles, a large warehouse in Muscat as well as a qualified team.

Oman Tribune

